LEADER KITCHIN TO PUSH TAX BILL

Tells House He Is Unconvinced Measure Is Necessary, but Will Steer It.

BLAMES GREAT PUBLISHERS

Declares They Hope Thereby to Obtain a Repeal of the Postal Tax Which Was Laid on Them Last Session.

Washington, May 29.—Declaring that he still was unconvinced that a revenue bill is necessary at this session of congress, but that a refusal to pass such a measure would be misinterpreted in enemy countries, Claude Kitchen, majority leader of the house, told the lower body that he would submit to the wishes of the chief executive and steer the proposed tax bill to final passage.

Hits at Publishers.
Kitchen charged that the "great publishers of the country were responsible for the revenue bill." He said that they hoped thereby to obtain a repeal of the postal tax which was laid on them last session.

"I know their game," he shouted, "and I tell you that if I am a conferee on that bill there will be one man who will never aid them."

Kitchen charged that the lobby which the publishers maintained was one of the "most powerful that ever infested Washington hotels."

Representative Johnson of Washington, himself a newspaper editor, arose to question Kitchen, but Kitchen refused to recognize him. As Johnson took his seat, Kitchen added:

"And I am watching to see who will aid the publishers in their game."

Kitchen said the publishers had attempted to have the postal rate law repealed in the post office appropriation bill, and had failed; and had then determined there must be a new revenue bill. When the revenue bill was first suggested, he said, the "great newspapers" came out in leading editorials for it.

President Not Criticized.
He declared he did not charge President Wilson or Secretary McAdoo with having been influenced by the newspapers.

"Although I have said I did not believe it necessary, when the commander in chief speaks I believe, under the circumstances, that his request should not be refused. Such a refusal would be heralded through the world as a split between the congress and the executive."

"Now that the order has been given, I believe it is our duty to go to the task, as patriotic citizens and good soldiers—promptly and uncomplainingly."

Kitchen was given a three-minute demonstration when he took the floor to "set himself right with the house." Both Republicans and Democrats stood in a body and cheered.

HAIG REASSURES THE QUEEN

British Field Marshal Hopes for Successful Termination of War in Year.

London, May 29.—Field Marshal Haig, telegraphing his congratulations to Queen Mary on her birthday, expresses the confidence that before the Queen's next birthday the hopes for the successful termination of the war will have been realized. The queen, thanking the British general, re-echoed his hope.

$400,000 FIRE AT MONA LAKE

Hotel Casino and Boats Destroyed at Michigan Summer Resort Near Muskegon.

Muskegon, Mich., May 29.—Fire of undetermined origin destroyed Lake Harbor hotel, a casino, boat house, several small boats and considerable other property at Mona lake, five miles from this city. The hotel was the largest summer resort structure in this section of Michigan. It had not yet been opened for the season. The loss will exceed $400,000.

HUN RAID ON PARIS FAILS

Ten or Twelve Airplanes Drop Some Bombs in Suburbs—Raiders Driven Off.

TENNESSEE HAPPENINGS

Interesting News Gathered From Various Places in the Volunteer State

Dyersburg.—Prof. Edgar McPeak, a member of the faculty of the Dyersburg high school, has given up his school work to enter the aviation service.

Chattanooga.—As an innovation in local industrial circles, 20 girls, representing a high type of womanhood, donned overalls and went to work for a local manufacturing plant in its shops.

Johnson City.—All negroes have left Erwin following the riot attending the burning of the dead body of Tom Devert, mob leaders having ordered every negro to leave town immediately.

Jackson.—Thomas E. Gates, evangelist singer, known well in Tennessee and adjoining states, died suddenly in Hot Springs, according to a message received by his father, Capt. T. M. Gates.

Jackson.—The celebrated murder case from Gibson county, styled Sam Taylor vs. State, was argued in the supreme court, with Attorney W. W. Heron of Trenton representing the defendant and Assistant Attorney General W. H. Swigart the state.

Henderson.—The Red Cross drive was carried out in Henderson county under the direction of John S. Fleider, county chairman. Speakers from the legal, ministerial, teaching and commercial professions wholeheartedly gave themselves to the campaign and touched every nook and cranny of the county.

Dyersburg.—The dredgeboat Marion arrived here from St. Louis ready to dig the North Forked Deer drainage ditch, which begins at the Gibson county line and continues to Dyersburg. The ditch is 26 miles long and drains a fertile section of country. A. V. Willis & Son of St. Louis are owners of the boat and have the contract for the ditch.

Milan.—The picking and shipping season of the berry crop of Milan and vicinity has closed. Prices were good from the first to the end of the season. Growers realized much money from the crop, notwithstanding there was only about 40 per cent of a crop, having been killed by the April frost. The crop was shipped in carload lots to eastern markets by the local buyers.

Camden.—Gov. Tom C. Rye will speak here at the courthouse in the interest of the Red Cross war fund. The ladies of this place are making all necessary arrangements for the parade and indications are that there will be a large crowd present. The merchants of Camden have agreed to close their places of business from 1:30 to 2:30 and will hear Gov. Rye speak.

Humboldt.—Postmaster J. W. McGlathery of Humboldt has obtained an agreement from every business house in town to accept war savings stamps and thrift stamps from every postoffice employee in payment for all bills made during the month of June. As the local office employs about 20 men on good salaries, this movement will boost the sale of stamps to a considerable extent for the month of June. This lead may be followed by other employers of labor for other months, taking one factory a month.

Knoxville.—East Tennessee counties, Greene in particular (and Greene is one of the best agricultural counties in the state), report that wheat is failing in the fields. A sample of this fallen wheat was forwarded from Greene county to the state pathologist, who diagnosed the disease as due to the effects of joint worms.

Jackson.—On April 27 $600 was stolen from the home of William Andrews, this city, and a young colored girl, 18 years old, an employee of the home, was arrested charged with the crime. She confessed and implicated others. Four hundred and fifty-five dollars of the money was recovered. The confessed thief was turned over to the juvenile court.

Murfreesboro.—Porter E. Compton, reported as severely wounded in France, is a son of Ed Compton, a farmer formerly residing on the Hall's Hill pike, but now living on the Ben Batey farm, off from the Lanesburg pike. The young man is about 25 years of age and enlisted in the regular army about three years ago. The family is a well-known and substantial one in this county.

Capleville.—A Red Cross anniversary rally was held here, which carried Capleville away over the top on the quota assigned to it for the second war fund campaign. The allotment for Capleville was $250. The collection taken at the rally netted $725 for the fund.

Jackson.—The West Tennessee Medical and Surgical association, which embraces all of West Tennessee, and which had Jackson for its permanent meeting place and home for a number of years, was in session here.

MOVE TO STABILIZE LABOR.
State and Union Labor Officials of New Jersey in Practical Accord on Proposed Plan.

A plan for stabilizing the labor of the country as evolved at a recent conference attended by Col. Trenton Lewis T. Bryant, commissioner of labor for New Jersey; Warren C. King, president of the Manufacturers' Council of the state; Joseph Spitz, director of employment of the state labor department, and other officials and business men.

Beginning July 1, every worker seeking employment in New Jersey, will be required to present a card from the state, federal and municipal employment bureau, showing where he was last employed and for what reason his employment ceased.

It is hoped this plan will pave the way for similar action by other states and by the federal government. The object of the card system is to do away with the large number of floating workers who work a day, or a few days, in one plant, only to look for a job in another plant. Union labor, no less than employers, is anxious to put an end to this practice.

It was also suggested, in order to meet the nation's needs, that it will be necessary to employ a larger number of women, not to perform unskilled labor alone, but also to do the lighter and more delicate work required of skilled mechanics.

SCHWAB IN PLEA TO WORKERS

Director General Tells Ship Employees the Task Is Up to the Common Man.

Charles M. Schwab, director general of ship construction, and Senator Duncan U. Fletcher of Florida addressed several thousand Hog Island shipyard workers at a patriotic rally. Later, with Chairman Edward N. Hurley of the shipping board, Vice President Charles A. Piaz and Francis T. Bowles, they made a brief inspection of the yards.

Mr. Schwab told the workers that great responsibility rests with them and assured them they should be given full credit for the work they are doing.

"I am greatly pleased with everything," he said. "You are the boys who are doing the work. This great task which confronts us is not a task of the distinguished men here. We can do nothing more than grease the wheels and make it easier for you men on the job. The real responsibility rests with you, not with us, and if there is responsibility there must be credit. I am a believer, and have been all my life, in encouragement and not criticism. No man ever worked for me in my lifetime, but many thousands have worked with me, and that is what I want the men of Hog Island to do."

BRITISH WAR WORKERS UPHOLD LLOYD GEORGE

The Woolwich (England) arsenal workers sent the following message of confidence to Premier Lloyd George: "We are with you because you are the people's premier and we feel confident of victory under your leadership. The Germans want you to go, but the workmen of England do not. Your enemies are our enemies—and them all."
